 Travel Gear/Holiday Gift Guide
 Featuring: The Berkeley

The screenshot shows the website's header with the logo, navigation menu (Surfing, Snow, Skate, Bike, Powder, FS, Surfer, CK, WaveWatch), and a search bar. The main content area is titled "Travel Gear/Holiday Gift Guide" and includes a sidebar for "ACCESSORIES". The article text describes paddling gifts and features an image of a blue "Ex Officio Baja" shirt. A right-hand sidebar contains a "GET:OUTDOORS" newsletter sign-up form and a Puma logo.

As cute in the boardroom as they are at the ticket counter, these Mary Jane/clog hybrids slip on easily as you're flying out the door, and kick off in a snap in the line for airport security. A cushy footbed cradles your arches while running to catch a plane; non-marking soles tread lightly on shiny surfaces and wrap around for superior toe protection.
